

Wisconsin Junior Classical League

The James Greenwald WJCL Scholarship

Established in honor of Mr. James Greenwald, who began teaching at Marquette University High School in 1968 and served there for over 40 years the young men of Marquette High as an exemplary teacher of the classics. Mr. Greenwald Continued to mentor the Latin students of the Wisconsin in the techniques of certamen as we prepare for the national competitions.

From 2018 to 2022 there will be awarded 2 full scholarships to worthy students to the State Convention in honor of James Greenwald's contribution to our delegation over the years.

Criteria for awards:

- * Financial need
- * Academic record
- * JCL service at local or state level
- * Recommendation from YOUR LATIN teacher and another adult, if desired.

Scholarship Selection Committee

The WJCL Selection Committee is a special committee. It is composed of the 2 State Chairs, one of which is also the Treasurer. Scholarship recipients are chosen on returned applications and recommendations, and grades and service to the JCL. The Committee will announce the scholarship winners after the December board meeting.
