- iii. Large - More than 50.

VII. Website Update by Dina Carpenter-Graffy

A. Dina motions to change the site host to Weebly now that our subscription with our current host (wix) has ended.

B. Three Options:

- 1. Wix
  - i. Pros: Editor is simple, apps, more complicated designs made simple, templates, creative freedom, support, mobile version.
  - ii. Cons: Limited number of free apps, people can't follow blog from site, not ADA compliant, nearly all media/add-ons are hosted by third parties, template cannot be changed easily, No access to HTML/CSS
  - iii. Cost: $12.42/month (10GB storage, free domain, and unlimited bandwidth)
- 2. Weebly
  - i. Pros: Ranked easiest builder 2014, easy access to HTML/CSS, easy to change template, constantly new templates, support services, Google analytics, mobile.
  - ii. Cons: Templates more minimalistic, some amount of formula involved.
  - iii. Cost: $6.63/month (domain, unlimited bandwidth, unlimited storage, HD video/audio)
- 3. Squarespace
  - i. Pros: Minimalistic, responsive templates, adjust to browser size (mobile), editing that most builders require coding for, best for images/galleries, can edit CSS, support services.

- ii. Cons: Complicated editor, most expensive
- iii. Cost: $16/month (unlimited pages/bandwidth/storage and domain)
- C. Paul Weiskopf seconds the motion.
- D. The motion passes. Dina will be using Weebly to host the website.
- E. Dina would also like to change the email list to “Tinyletter”
  - i. Motion passes.
  - ii. Magistra Austino requests that she delete past students from list.
